

Schedule at a Glance: 2008 Meeting of the Minds

Thursday, April 3rd

10am -9pm: Registration Table Open; Presenter Check-in Table Open

Pre-Conference Workshops

Must be registered and paid in advance to attend

1:00pm-5:00pm

- Introduction to Motivational Interviewing: The Basics of BASICS
- Smokefree Indoor Air Policy Change: It's about health and it's about time.
- Using Policy to create Change and Complying with the DFSCA
- Bathrooms, Classrooms and Dorm Rooms: Making room for transgender people on campus
- Fundamentals of Peer Education

6:00pm Welcome Dinner and Opening Session, Pavilion
Keynote Presentation: Inspirational Comedy
Keynote Speaker, Judson Laipply

Following Dinner Area 5 will celebrate 5 Alive Night in the Ballroom Salons

Friday, April 4th

7am-5pm

Registration table open in the hotel foyer

Continental Breakfast Available 7:30am in the Grand Ballroom Foyer for students and professionals/advisors

General Session, Grand Ballroom

8:15am-9:15am

Keynote Presentation: "Energizing and Activating Students in Tobacco Control"

Keynote Speakers: Ken and Adam Dahlgren

Law Enforcement Breakfast: "Report from the Drug Enforcement Administration: What is Lawful Prescription"

8:15-9:15am

For Law Enforcement Only, continental breakfast will be served in the Arkansas Room beginning at 7:30am

Educational Sessions, Block I

9:45am-10:45am

- Trans U: An Introduction to Transgender Issues on Campus
- Students in Cyberspace: On-line Social Networks, On-Line Gambling, File Sharing, and More

- Introduction to Motivational Interviewing: The Basics of BASICS
- Ask the Sexpert- LIVE!
- How You Doin'?
- Oh, so THAT's why!: Using Health Promotion Theory In Peer Education
- Student Chat Room: A Piece of Your Mind

Special Extended Session: Law Enforcement Training

9:45am -noon

Party Patrol and Controlled Party Dispersal Techniques for Preventing and Breaking Up Underage Drinking Parties: Part I: Classroom Instruction

Special Extended Session: Tobacco Track

9:45am-12:00 noon

Advocacy Into Action: Mock City Council

Educational Sessions, Block II

11:00 am -12:00 noon

- Data: How to Make it Work for You
- Lessons from Virginia Tech
- Don't Get Burned: How Tanning Beds Have Become a Dangerous American Trend
- Intimate Partner Violence and Suicide: What's The Link
- CyberHealth- Programming in a Virtual World
- Stand Up and Be Counted: LGBT Equality
- Student Chat Room: GAMMA

Lunch and General Session

12:00-1:30pm

Keynote: Be Heard. Talking About Mental Health

Keynote Speaker: Kevin Hines, The Heard- National Mental Health Awareness Campaign

Educational Sessions: Block III

1:30pm-2:45pm

- Evaluation: What, Why, When, and How
- Riskscapes: The Law and Policy of Off Campus Student Conduct
- Tobacco and the Environment
- Towards a Synergistic Approach to Prevention
- Drugs on Campus
- The Leadership Challenge: Developing the Leader Within
- Second Thoughts: Rape, Ethics, Men, and Change

Special Law Enforcement Training Session: Controlled Party Dispersal Experiential Training and Enforcement of Nuisance Party Laws

Part II: Experiential Training

1:30pm-4:00pm

Participants will be divided into several groups for the experiential portion. The group that is not participating in the experiential will view the presentation Enforcement of Nuisance Abatement Laws by Officer Timothy Thomason of the Columbia Police Department.

Educational Sessions: Block IV

3:00 pm- 4:15 pm

- How to Determine What Your Data is Telling You

- Student Conduct Codes in the 21st Century: A Step by Step Example of the University of Missouri Code of Student Conduct
- Addressing Tobacco Control on Campus
- On-Line Social Networking
- Smokes, Slots, and Suicide: What is the Connection
- Not Another Alcohol Program
- Sleep and Caffeine: The Right Mix = A Good Fix
- Roundtable: CHEERS to Your Community

Educational Sessions: Block V

4:30pm -5:30pm

- Wreck Less Driving
- What the Hookah?
- Is Collegiate Drinking the Problem We Think It Is?
- Inner Peace for College Students
- The Current: Electric Dialogue
- Are You Street Smart- Pharming
- Making Your Greek Outreach Great

Saturday, April 5th

Professionals Breakfast

8:00-9:30, Grand Ballroom Salons

Looking to the Future: A Panel Discussion with Leaders in the Prevention Field

Law Enforcement and Judicial Affairs Breakfast

8:00-8:45

For Students Only Breakfast

8:15-9:00

Keynote Address: "Asleep at the Wheel"

Keynote Speaker: Russ Burris

Area 5 Meeting for Students

9:00-9:30am

Led by Area 5 SAC Katie Eggerman

Special Extended Session: Law Enforcement

9:00-10:45

How CIT Can Help Your Community

Educational Sessions, Block VI

9:45am-10:45am

- How to Help a Sister: Dealing with Rape and Sexual Assault in the Greek System
- Stirring Things Up: Addressing Alcohol Policy Violations as an Indicator of Academic Risk
- Put Your Foot in the Door, Not in Your Mouth
- Let Them Have Cake!
- Let's Play: The Role of Learning Styles in Training
- Mirror, Mirror
- Roundtable: Progress Through Passive Promotions

Educational Sessions, Block VII

11:00am-12:00noon

- I Said No to Drugs, But the Drugs Wouldn't Listen
- RUM: Ridiculous Ultimate Monopoly
- AIDS: All Individual Decisions are Sacred
- Strategic Planning For Smokefree Environments
- I can do this for a living?
- Power Communication: Techniques for Reducing Distress
- Outsmarting Your Anger

Closing Luncheon and The BACCHUS Network Area 5 Awards Ceremony

12pm-2:00pm